

Bible Prophecy in the News!

A Conference Sponsored by Lamb & Lion Ministries and Hosted by Rose Heights Church in Tyler, Texas

Dates: March 13-14, 2010

Location: Rose Heights Church in Tyler, Texas, located at 2120 Old Omen Road. For instructions about how to get to the church, check the church's website at www.roseheights.org.

Cost: Free of charge, but participants must register in advance by calling the church at 903-566-2209 or by visiting the church website.

Conference Schedule

Saturday, March 13

8:30am — Doors Open

9:00 to 9:30 — Welcome and Opening Worship
led by Jack Hollingsworth

9:30 to 10:30 — Dave Reagan: "Bible Prophecy
in the News"

10:30 to 11:00 — Break

11:00 to 12:00 — Don McGee: "Prophecy & the News: The Wheat & Tares"

12:00 to 1:00 — Lunch Break

1:00 to 1:30 — Concert by Jack Hollingsworth

1:30 to 2:30 — Nathan Jones: "The Impending
Invasion of Israel"

2:30 to 3:00 — Break

3:00 to 4:00 — Dave Reagan: "Spiritual Apostasy in the End Times"

4:00 to 5:00 — Question and Answer Forum
with all the Speakers

Lunch on Saturday:

The church will supply a lunch consisting of a chicken sandwich, potato chips, brownie and drink for $6 per person. Coffee will be available on Saturday morning.

Registration:

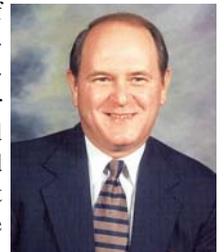

Registration is essential due to limited seating and the need to plan for the number of lunches needed. Please call the church at 903-566-2080 to register, or register through the church's website at www.roseheights.org.

Featured Speakers and Musicians

Dave Reagan — Founded Lamb & Lion Ministries in 1980 after a 20 year career as a professor of international law and politics. He serves as host of the ministry's national television program, "Christ in Prophecy." He is the author of several books about Bible prophecy and has led more than 40 pilgrimages to Israel.

Don McGee — Founder and director of Crown & Sickle Ministries in Amite, Louisiana — a ministry specializing in the teaching of Bible prophecy. He is a Vietnam War veteran who has served both as a pastor and a Louisiana State Trooper. He established his ministry in 2002 and has since spoken at churches and conferences all across the United States.

Nathan Jones — Serves as Evangelist and Web Minister for Lamb & Lion Ministries. He divides his time between writing about Bible prophecy in the news and serving as an apologist in defense of the Christian faith. He is firmly grounded in the Scriptures, and has quickly become a recognized expert in the field of Bible prophecy.

Jack Hollingsworth — Jack is the featured singer on the Lamb & Lion television program. Jack lived homeless on the streets for 20 years before his life was totally transformed by Jesus. He and his wife, Sally, formed Acts 29 Ministries in 1993 and have traveled constantly ever since in their mobile home, ministering in song while teaching and preaching the Word.

Note: The conference will continue on Sunday morning, March 14, with Don McGee speaking to the early service (8:30am) and Dave Reagan speaking at the second service (10:30am). Jack Hollingsworth will be singing at both services.